PETER KING

I have a vast experience in the IT industry having work as a Web Designer, Computer Trainer and Documentation Specialist for over fifteen years. My career objective is "To be skilled in the business of training and development, so that I can help people reach their full potential". I have worked in various organisations working to train and to organise staff training, and write training material.

I am the owner of a business called King Web Design and Computer Services Pty Ltd. This business provides my clients with effective solutions for Website Development, Graphic Design, Electronic/Printed Media, Computer Training and documentation of computer systems.

I have trained in computer applications such as: Microsoft products (Windows 95/98/NT/2000/XP/Vista, Office Suite including 2007, Visio); Adobe products (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Acrobat, Dreamweaver, Fireworks, Flash); Accounting packages (MYOB, Sybiz).

I am comfortable communicating at all levels within an organisation, and I hold a Diploma of Business (Human Resource Development). This qualification allows me to operate as a Workplace Trainer and Assessor.
